

Dear Mr. Kastel,

I want to express my sincere apologies for the actions I took last February. Please know that my intention was never to cause any harm, fear or distress. My actions were silly and I'm embarrassed about what I did. Also, I want to clarify that my comments were made solely as an individual and were not meant to represent my employer, CCOF, or its values in any way.

Thank you,

Gabriel Ramirez

02/24/25

